DISRESPECT TO THE JUDICIAL AUTHORITY.

At Mecklenburg Superior Court, on the 13th inst., Capt. Green W. Caldwell was tried for an assault with a revolver on Rufus Barringer, Esq., during the last Election canvass. Caldwell was found guilty, and Judge Settle sentenced him to 20 day's imprisonment. Whereupon, as we learn from the Hornet's Nest, "the excitement among Caldwell's friends was intense. Hundreds would have stepped between the judgment and its execution, and the feeling to do so was deep and determined, but it soon came to be understood that it was entirely contrary to Mr. Caldwell's wishes and views that any thing of the kind should be undertaken; he preferring to obey the high behests of the law, to making any resistance to its demands."

Subsequently, on the evening of Mr. Caldwell's commitment to prison, a number of persons united in an invitation to a public dinner, complaining, in their letter to him, that the penalties of the law had "fallen unjustly upon him," and declaring that "they had seen nothing in his conduct which should consign him to the walls of a prison." The newspaper says that this feeling was universal.

We desire to say nothing as to the affray between Messrs. Caldwell and Barringer, except that the long account published by "Many friends of Maj. G. W. Caldwell," makes out such a case as seems to us to be inconsistent with the finding of a verdict by a Jury against Caldwell. We are therefore led to suspect the fullness and fairness of that account. The finding of the Jury negatives the idea of such a justification as the case presented by his friends would show. And after such a finding, no impartial man can wonder that an upright Judge should sentence the defendant to imprisonment. We have heard it declared from the Bench, and we confess with entire approbation, that imprisonment should invariably follow every conviction for an assault with deadly weapons. We applauded the resolution of that Judge; feeling convinced that it was necessary, in order to prevent the carrying of arms, and the consequent frequent commission of murder. And what is there in the character and standing of Major Caldwell, which should exempt him from the penalty of the law? Shall a poor devil be sent to jail for shooting his fellow being, and Maj. Caldwell be exempted from that unpleasant penalty? Who ever thought of interposing to prevent the former from being carried to jail, or of offering him a public dinner? True Maj. Caldwell is a man of high character, and a Senator in the State Legislature: But these are only reasons why he should respect the laws which he himself helped to make; and not reasons why he should be exempted from their operation.

For ourself, we respect the Judge who performed his duty, without respect to persons. The only drawback to this feeling is the fact that he afterwards gave way to the public feeling, and remitted the sentence after Maj. Caldwell had been in prison a day and two nights. This was done on petitions, numerously signed, but from all accounts it has rather the appearance of a triumph over the Judiciary.

It is the duty and interest of all good citizens to uphold the laws, as fairly administered by Court and Jury. And therefore we cannot but look with regret upon the conduct of the people and press of Mecklenburg in this matter. It could perhaps hardly be expected of Maj. Caldwell that he should rebuke their expressions, but considerate men in other parts of this State cannot fail to do so.—Fay. Observer.

UNION MEETING AT MANCHESTER N. H.—There was a large gathering of the friends of the Union at Manchester (N. H.) on Wednesday evening last. Men of both political parties, very many of whom have been distinguished in public life, were present. Letters were read from Hon. LEVI WOODBURY and Hon. DANIEL WEBSTER. Speeches were made by some of the ablest orators in the State, and resolutions passed expressive of a firm determination to adhere to the Union, and to use every effort to allay the spirit of agitation which has engendered such hostile and bitter feeling between different sections of our country. We regret that the demands upon our space to-day oblige us to defer a more extended notice of the very interesting proceedings at this meeting.

RUMORED ARREST OF GOVERNOR QUITMAN.—A rumor is in circulation at Louisville that a telegraphic dispatch went on Saturday, from the U. S. District Attorney at New Orleans, to President Fillmore, asking for the necessary force to take Governor Quitman, of Massissippi, to New Orleans to be tried for alleged participation in the Cuban invasion.—This is a doubtful story we think.

LEGISLATIVE DEBATE,

ON THE BILL

To Repeal the Act of Incorporation

OF THE

N. C. R. R. COMPANY.

REMARKS OF MR. AVERY.

Mr. Avery said,

He hoped the motion to reject would prevail—that the bill now before the House was the first proposition ever made before any Legislature in North Carolina, to violate the plighted faith of the State. And he considered it due to the honor and character of the State, hitherto untarnished, that the Bill should be promptly rejected, and the seal of condemnation placed upon this first movement towards repudiation. He expressed surprise that this movement should come from the County of Wayne; that the census returns exhibit a greater increase in population and wealth in that County, within ten years, than any other within the State, except the County of New Hanover, and this increase was conceded on all sides, to be attributable to the works of internal improvements in successful operation within her borders. He said he was the friend of internal improvements, and favorable to the charter which this bill proposes to repeal, and would be willing at all times and under all circumstances to maintain and defend the views he entertained upon the question of internal improvements, but he considered any discussion or enquiry as to the bill originally incorporating the North Carolina Rail Road, as not pertinent to the issue now before the House—that a more grave and serious question, than the consideration of a mere appropriation of public money for a public improvement, was presented for our determination:

That the original charter was a contract between the State and the stockholders who comprise a large number of its own citizens, and important and valuable rights have already vested under it, and any proposition interfering with the due assertion and exercise of those rights is in direct conflict with the constitution of the United States, which provides that no State shall pass any law impairing the obligation of contracts. He said, he did not propose to discuss this constitutional question, for, the objection to the passage of the bill upon that ground, seemed to him, so palpable, and self evident, as not to require the aid of argument or illustration to enforce it; but he placed his opposition upon even higher grounds than this. He insisted that the passage of the bill would be a direct and positive repudiation on the part of the State of a solemn contract, and would justly degrade her in the estimation of her own citizens and of the civilized world. He argued that the contracts of the State made with her own citizens, were of as binding force and obligation, as those made with the people of a foreign government, and that a breach of her plighted engagements, in any case, or for any cause, would brand her with dishonor, and subject her to deserved contempt and degradation. He said that (without intending any personal disrespect to the representatives from Wayne,) he hoped the proposition would meet with general reprobation, and that (besides the Wayne delegation,) the whole House, irrespective of their opinions touching the original bill now proposed to be repealed, would unite in the rejection of this bill, and thereby manifest a determination to maintain unsullied the faith, honor and credit of the State.

REMARKS OF MR. McLEAN.

Mr. Speaker: I arise to express the hope that the bill introduced by the gentleman from Wayne (Mr. Sherard) may be rejected on its first reading. The passage of that bill, in my humble judgment, would be in utter disregard and violation of the Constitution of the United States. That instrument declares that no State shall pass "any law impairing the obligation of contracts"—and Sir, we are not left in the dark as to the true meaning of that clause of the Constitution, for a construction has been placed upon it by the highest Judicial tribunal of our government, in the celebrated case of the Dartmouth College. Now, Sir, take the bill before us—it proposes to repeal the charter of the North Carolina Rail-Road Company, and that too after all the stock has been taken, the five per cent. paid in by the Stockholders as required by the Charter and after the Company have been organized. Therefore, it seems to me, Sir, that the contract, the State on the one part and the Stockholders, on the other part, is now complete, and has become a sealed compact. How then can we pass this bill which proposes to impair the obligation of this contract, without trampling under foot the Federal Constitution, disregarding the decision of the Supreme Court of the U. S. and violating the plighted faith of North Carolina. The gentleman from Wayne (Mr. Brogden) proclaimed it aloud that he is ready to march up and face the music. Sir, I desire to see him march up to this constitutional tune and meet the constitutional obligation to this bill. Will he do so?

It has been intimated on this floor, that fraud has been committed by the Stockholders and that the terms of the Charter have not been complied with. I would respectfully ask gentlemen, how has any fraud been committed? In what particulars has the Charter not been complied with? Sir, I can say to the gentleman from Wayne, (Mr. Brogden) in answer to the intimation of fraud on the part of the Stockholders that into their conduct they invite the strictest scrutiny and defy the bitterest malice. It seems to me, Sir, that it comes with a bad grace from the gentlemen from Wayne, to be attempting to destroy the project of a North Carolina Rail-Road: why, Sir, for many years have the gentlemen's constituents enjoyed the benefit of the Wilmington and Raleigh Road, and what has it done for their county? It has given them a market at their very door—has increased the value of their lands—has, within the last ten years, increased their population several thousand, whilst from other parts of the State, where the people have not the facilities of market, the tide of emigration has been sweeping the wealth, enterprize and talent from the State. The region of the State which I have the honor, in part, to represent, on this floor, has a fertile soil, a salubrious climate and the fruits of the earth are abundant, but, alas! we have no market. Give us a market for our products—build this Central Road—improve our navigable rivers—open a communication between the eastern and the western portion of our State, and before the next census is taken, you will see that every county in the State has increased, as Wayne has now done, in population, wealth and enterprize. I desire to see every part of the State, from the blue wave, to the blue mountain, improved, and then her wealth, enterprize and talent will remain in our midst and our people will be a happy and independent people.

REMARKS OF MR. MIZELL,

OF MARTIN.

As I am called upon to record my vote on the motion to reject this bill, and shall vote for its rejection, I desire to state the reasons why I do so. Sir, I do so, because as the question now stands before us, I deem the bill unconstitutional, and that it would be a gross violation, on the part of the faith of the State, to repeal the Act of the last Legislature incorporating the Central Rail Road. But I do not see, if the stockholders of the said Road have committed a fraud, as has been suggested by some, and the faith of the State would not be violated by a repeal, why gentlemen should express so much surprise at an attempt on the part of those who oppose the Road to repeal. Sir, it is necessary to recur to the passage of the bill at the last Session of the Legislature, to ascertain whether such a course is justifiable or not. It is incorporated in our Bill of Rights, which is made a part of our Constitution, that the People shall not be taxed without their consent, or the consent of their representatives freely expressed, and it is well known that at the time the Bill incorporating this Road was passed, at the last Session, it was immediately on the heel of the Session, when many members had gone home, and passed too by a complete system of log rolling, as appears upon our Statute Book. I refer to the appropriations of $65,000, made for the Tar and Neuse Rivers, which were made to depend on the compliance, on the part of the Stockholders, by paying in the $500,000 to authorize them to call upon the State for her subscription. But it may be said, that this is not a law to tax; but I say, if it is not a law to tax, it is a law to produce a cause, the inevitable result of which is taxation; and I see no difference in principle between a law directly to tax and a law to create a cause, the result of which is taxation. As the matter now stands, and in the absence of evidence to the contrary, it is prima facie that no fraud has been committed, and that the stockholders have, as far as required by the Act, complied with the Charter, and, if so, it would be unconstitutional, and a violation of the faith of the State, to repeal the Charter. I would spurn the idea; I would be one of the last men in this Hall, to cast my vote to tarnish or violate the faith of the State!

Subsequently, Mr. Mizell remarked, by way of explanation, in reply to some observations from Mr. Barnes, of Northampton:

It seems, sir, that gentleman are determined to misunderstand me. I distinctly stated that I should vote to reject the Bill, because I considered it unconstitutional, and a violation of the faith of the State, to repeal the act of incorporation; but I still say, if the Stockholders have committed any fraud upon the State or failed to comply with any of the requirements of their Charter, up to this time, that this Legislature has the right to repeal.

The position of the gentleman from Northampton would be correct, that this Legislature has not the power to repeal, if the contract of charter was fully consummated and complete. A judicial tribunal would be the proper place to set aside, or annul the charter; but there are but two general divisions of contract—Executed and Executory—and I look upon this as an Executory Contract, and the State has a right to recede from performance, and this Legislature at any time, whenever fraud is discovered at any step, during its consummation, and before the contract is complete.

REMARKS OF MR. STEELE.

Mr. Speaker: I have been endeavoring for some time past, to obtain the floor, not for the purpose of detaining the House, but to respond to a call which has been made upon me. When the Bill, introduced by the gentleman from Wayne, (Mr. Sherrard,) was read, I had the honor (and I must be permitted to say, I esteem it a great honor,) to make the motion to reject it. I did so, because I thought that to be the most proper mode of treating the proposition, contained in the Bill. I could not regard the Bill as entitled to any respect whatever, at the hands of the representatives of the people of our own honest old State; and thinking so, my friend from Craven (Mr. Stevenson) must pardon me for refusing to give my consent in any way, that it shall pass to its second reading.

The only questions properly arising under the Bill which I have moved to reject, are, first, whether this Legislature has the right to repeal the act of 1848-'9; and secondly, assuming the right, whether it would be in consonance with our character as an honest people, to do so. I shall not speak of the first question, as that has already been discussed by the gentleman from Warren, (Mr. Eaton) and others who have preceded me; and because there are reasons enough besides that to cause me to vote for the motion now pending.

Now, sir, what does the gentleman from Wayne really propose to do? He proposes to violate the faith of North Carolina! He has the distinguished honor, so far as I know, of being the first man (and I hope he is the last) who has dared to suggest the odious doctrine of repudiation to the people of our State.—We have plighted our faith, and be it for weal or for wo, that faith should be inviolate. Repudiation!—What! can it be possible, that such a proposition will meet with favor at the hands of any considerable portion of those who pride themselves in being North Carolinians? No sir! No! Never let it be said that a proposition to blot the fair escutcheon of our beloved State can find any other response from her sons, but that of indignant rejection. Sir, when the tone of morals of our people becomes so low that our faith, firmly given, can be broken, for one, God knows, I shall turn my back upon my State and seek a more congenial place of abode.

Sir, the gentleman from Wayne (Mr. Brogden) tells us that he is willing to take the responsibility. His course needs no declaration to prove that. He is welcome to all the honor he is likely to get from the assumption. And I take occasion to say, that he is a brave man indeed who is willing to take responsibility, where he is sure to meet with the honest indignation of an outraged people.

Sir, I again say to my friend from Craven, that however much I might, under ordinary circumstances, be willing to see the "engineer hoist by his own petar," yet I cannot, by any course of mine, consent to pay respect to a proposition, which, in my judgment, deserves none but that exhibited in an emphatic rejection. And I trust that when the Clerk shall have called the roll, a result will be shown worthy the character of honest North Carolina.

TUESDAY'S DEBATE.

Our circumscribed limits will only permit us to give the Debate in the House of Commons, on Tuesday, on Mr. Sherard's Repudiation proposition, in instalments. We commence this morning, with the remarks of a portion of the gentlemen who participated in the discussion, and shall continue the sketches in such order as we may best be able to obtain or write them out.

It is our wish to present as full and accurate a sketch of the highly interesting Debate, in question, as possible. The importance of the subject to the people of the State renders this desirable.

GOV. MANLY'S MESSAGE.

It is a source of much gratification to witness the almost universal satisfaction with which that portion of Gov. Manley's late able Message, relative to the Slavery question, is received. Hardly an exchange, either in our own, or neigbboring States, comes to us, that does not speak in the most exalted terms of the patriotic sentiments which it embodies. They are justly admired, no less for the spirit of moderation which they breathe, than for their firm and decided stand for the maintenance of Southern rights.

MANUFACTURE OF WOOLENS.

We learn that some enterprising gentlemen, in the County of Richmond, intend establishing as early as possible, a manufactory for coarse woolen goods, near Rockingham. We are glad to see these signs of a better day, in the South, and trust these gentlemen will realize a handsome profit on their investment.

The Illustrated Domestic Bible, by Rev. Ingram Cobden, No. 10, is issued by Samuel Hueston, New York, and is an admirable specimen of clear and legible typography, to say nothing of the value of its contents, which are recommended in high terms by the best authorities.

☞ It is an old, and somewhat trite, idea, that "one should always go from home to hear the news." The "N. Y. Sunday Times" contains the following:

A gentleman of Raleigh, N. C., has invented a swinging cradle, which works by machinery, and which has a musical box attached. The parent has nothing to do but "wind up the concern," when the cradle will rock, and the musical box will play the child to sleep. Who says this is not an age of progress?

ADVERTISEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

The following is a verbatim extract from Col. Benton's last speech. We publish it for the express benefit of Adams & Co.'s Express, and in behalf of "Old Dr. Jacob Townsend":—

"I gave my opinion of that omnibus trap, and its name, in a certain speech in the Senate, commonly called the Sarsaparilla speech. You have all heard of it, and I shall not repeat it to you now. But I have a great affection for it—in fact, a grateful affection for it. It is the only speech that ever brought me a reward. Other speakers receive continual rewards; I have only received this one. It was from Old Doctor Jacob Townsend—two large boxes of the real genuine double compound extract of the root, prepared in his best manner, and accompanied by a most flattering letter. I accepted both; and now make my public acknowledgments for the same; but being in perfect health I have not yet tried the article. I have it all, untouched; and mean to have it all brought out to St. Louis early next spring, by Adams & Co.'s express, and shall distribute it wherever needed, without distinction of party. In fact, I expect to deliver the greatest part of it to my friends, the Whigs in St Louis and their friends, the nullifiers in St. Louis, and that just after the next April's city elections. I expect them to have bad coughs about that time, and will cheerfully relieve them, so far as Sarsaparilla can go."

A eulogy on the late Mr. Calhoun was delivered at Charleston, S.C., on the 21st instant, by General Hammond, on which occasion the several societies of Odd-Fellows, Masons, Sons of Temperance, the public officers, citizens, &c., of that city, marched in procession in large numbers.

The Postmaster General.—A despatch from Washington, dated the 19th, says:

"The Postmaster General, by recent regulations, has infused much systematic energy into his department. He personally inspects the monthly reports of the State business, prepared by the various clerks. The department was never more efficiently conducted."

The figures expressing the number of the United States, have at last changed. The old "13" is turned round into 31.

SENATE.

Wednesday, Nov. 27.

Received a message from the House, proposing to go into the election of Solicitor of the 5th Judicial District. Concurred in, and Messrs. Cameron and Haughton appointed the Senate's branch of the Committee.

Message to go into election for the 4th district at twelve o'clock, and informing that Messrs. C. Jones and Poindexter, were in nomination.—Messrs. Berry and Lane appointed superintendents of said election.

W. H. Thomas, from the committee on Internal improvements, reported without amendment, Mr. Cameron's bill to incorporate the Fayetteville and Southern Plank Road Company, and recommended its passage.

The Bill to incorporate the Fayetteville Toll Bridge Co., was taken up and passed the third and last time, and ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Gilmer introduced a series of resolutions on the Slavery question, which on motion of Mr. Joyner, were ordered to be printed and referred to the Joint Committee, on Negro Slavery.

A proposition was received from the House to vote at half past 12 o'clock, for Solicitor for the second Judicial District and announcing that G. S. Stevenson and J. S. Hawks were in nomination. Concurred in.

Message received from the House, announcing that McDowell, and Hill of Brunswick, formed the Committee to superintend the election for the 5th Circuit. Senate voted as follows: for Strange 27, Ashe 22.

Message received from the House, announcing that Messrs McLean, and Foster of Davidson, formed the House branch of the Committee to superintend the election of Solicitor for the 4th Judicial Circuit. Senate voted as follows: for Jones 27, Poindexter 20, John Kerr 1.

Mr. Woodfin introduced a bill to incorporate the Ashville and Greenville Plank Road Company. Referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Cameron, from the Committee appointed to superintend the election of Solicitor for the 5th Judicial Circuit, reported that R. Strange had received 91 votes, and Ashe 76 votes. Mr. Strange having received a majority of votes, was duly elected.

Mr. Berry, from the Committee appointed to superintend election for 4th Circuit, reported that Jones had received 92 votes; Poindexter 68; Kerr 1; Graves 2. Mr. Jones having received a majority of the whole number of votes, was duly elected.

Mr. Clark introduced the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the Judiciary Committee be instructed to report what facilities should be extended by the several County Courts of North Carolina, to any of the free colored population who may wish to emigrate to Liberia. And also to enquire into and report the legality and expediency of said County Courts binding out as apprentices for the term of ninety nine years, all the children of said population born after the 1st January 1852, for the mutual benefit and protection of both races.

Read and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Bynum introduced the following resolution.

Resolved, That the Committee on Corporations be instructed to enquire into the expediency of passing a general corporation act, providing for the formation of manufacturing and mining cos., plank road and turnpike cos., navigation cos., and such other cos., and societies as are now usually formed by seperate acts of incorporation and that the said Committee have leave to report by bill or otherwise.

Read and referred to the Committee on Corporations.

On motion of Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, the vouchers for survey of Western Turnpike were referred to the Committee on Claims.

Message from the House stating that Messrs. Sherrard and Cherry were appointed Committee on the part of the House to superintend election of Solicitor of the 2nd Circuit. Senate voted: Stevenson 26, Hawks 22.

On motion of Mr. Shepard, the Senate took up for consideration the resolutions heretofore introduced by him on the subject of slavery.

In discussing the subject matter of the resolutions introduced by him a day or two since, Mr. Shepard commenced by declaring his attachment to the Union. But viewing the progressive inroads on the interests of the South by the General Government, through the instrumentality of Congress, he argued to show, that the South had little to expect at the hands of the North, unless, being united in sentiment, as well as in interest, the South should present an undivided front in claiming and defending those rights, which the Constitution guarantied to us. He showed, by statistical tables, the increase of the black population, since the formation of the Confederacy, contended that, by the law of increase, a few more years would result in such an increase of slaves, as to require a more expanded area for their usefulness. That the effect of the Compromise acts, passed by Congress, would be to confine the slaves within so small a space, as to render them not only valuless, but a burden to their owners. He reviewed the opinions of Madison, Webster, Livingstop, and others, on the rights of the States; compared them with the opinions of Mr. Badger, as expressed in speech in August last, and declared that, if were right, Mr. Badger was wrong.

Mr. Shepard took strong ground against nullification, as understood by the South Carolina politicians; but contended for the right of the State

CASE OF THE MARSHAL IN BOSTON.

OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL,
NOVEMBER 25, 1850.

To the President: As requested by you, I have carefully examined all the papers placed in my hands relating to complaints made against Charles Devens, Esq., the Marshal of the Massachusetts district, for alleged neglect and dereliction of duty in failing to execute a warrant which came to his hands for the arrest of William Crafts, a fugitive slave.

These papers, consisting chiefly of the affidavits of Mr. Devens, the marshal, his deputy, Mr. P. Riley, James Dickson, George T. Curtis, Esq., and Willis H. Hughes, agent for the owner of the slaves, with letters from Mr. Fay and Mr. Curtis, are herewith returned. Having perused them with care, and certainly without any bias or prepossession in favor of the marshal or his deputy, I must say that, though I can see no evidence of any particular activity and energy on their part, it seems to me there does not sufficiently appear any cause for the censure of their conduct or the removal of the marshal from office. A more commendable activity and energy might probably have been exerted by them; but they seem to have acted, to a considerable extent, upon consultation and in concert with Mr. Hughes, the agent for the owner of the fugitive, and what might otherwise appear to be blameable in them may have been the result of that consultation and concert. In this uncertain state of the case, the declaration made by Mr. Hughes, at the conclusion of the transaction, that he "had no complaints to make against them," or words to that effect, is entitled to and has had some influence on my judgment.

If I could have discovered any satisfactory evidence of the neglect or evasion of duty by these officers, in this case, it would have been no less consonant with my feelings than with my judgment to have recommended their instant dimisal from the public service.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, yours, &c.
J. J. CRITTENDEN.

MASONRY AND THE UNION.—The Grand Lodge of the Masons in Georgia has recently concluded its annual session in Macon. It is said by a correspondent, who was present, that a large number of Lodges was represented, and that all the members are earnest and firm advocates of the Union.

WESTERN HOG MARKET.—According to the Cincinnati Price Current, there appears to be, upon an assessment of Hogs in seventy-six counties of Ohio, a deficiency of 246,000 head, as compared with the supply of last year.

A HARD HIT.—One of our Western Exchanges contain the following bit. The belle sex in Washington find more slurps than 'flats' in their train:

The late Mrs. Glenny, of Cincinnati, a great wit as well as a very lovely woman, being asked by one of her numerous admirers, 'why she was called the Great Western?' replied, 'Because I have so many flats in tow.'—Southern Press.

STOLEN.

MY Horse was stolen from my stable, last night. Said horse is rather small in size, well made, and in good order. His colour is what is called sorrel, with long tail and mane—the right hind foot white and a white stripe in his face. Age about 7 years. Shod all round and a natural trotter. The thief also took with him a blind-bridle. I will give a liberal reward to any one who will secure said horse, so that I can get him again, or for any information that may lead to the recovery of the horse or the detection of the thief.

The Preprietor, having made the SCIENCE of cutting Gentlemen's fashionable clothing his study, in the most fashionable Cities, for many years, is now prepared to give satisfaction to all who may want their clothing made. Gentlemen furnishing cloth and trimmings, will thus give employment to many in the City of Raleigh.

Those who only wish their garments cut shall have them warranted to fit, and at moderate prices. Gentlemen's garments altered and repaired at the shortest notice.

The New York and Philadelphia Fashions for the Fall and Winter just received.

PRESERVED GINGER, just received by

L. B. WALKER.

The "Bug" also at Home again.

I HAVE just returned the second time from Boston, N. York, and Philadelphia, having spent nearly all of August and September in said Cities, getting up our CLOTHING, every article of which was cut by himself, and made up under my own inspection; and I presume there is no one in North Carolina now, who would be verdant enough to question my capacity after the eloquent tribute paid to my 'artistic skill, in our last Superior Court, by Judge, Counsel on both sides, witnesses and Jurors. I refer to the case of "Biggs vs. Oliver"—action for damages, in which I had to pay $250, in consequence of my extended reputation.

Come in, if you please, and assist me in paying off the judgment by buying our goods. Who is there in North Carolina, who has not heard of the Hon. George E. Badger, the Hon. Wm. H. Haywood, Jr., and 'Bug' Oliver, Why 'their fame is no more to be hemmed in by State lines than their talents are to be circumscribed within the same narrow limits.'

We are connected, as all our customers know—and if they don't know it, they may—with no Northern House—but we are Tailors ourselves—buy our own goods, and import quite as many of what we purchase in proportion to our business, as any house in this State or out of it. There is no establishment here or elsewhere that possesses any advantage over us. We buy where every body else buys, and we think we understand our business and buy as cheaply. We say our clothing is equal to any offered for sale in North Carolina, and, we think superior, being Judges ourselves of clothing. Of that though, we will leave the public to decide, when they examine for themselves. One thing is certain—without intending to reflect upon any one—we will sell our clothing cheaper than the same articles can be bought for in any of the Northern Cities, and as cheap as any body that comes here, who does not steal his clothing ready made

Our stock embracing Drab, Black, Blue, Green, Gray, and other OVERCOATS from 6 to $20 and upwards. Cloaks, full circle, $18 upwards. Frock, dress, and Sack COATS from 7 to $12 and upwards. PANTALOONS, all colors and prices, from $4 to $8. VESTS, all kinds and all sizes, at all prices from $1,25 to $5. In fact, every thing that can be found in any similar establishment in the Union.

We are North Carolinians. We are permanently located here, and if we sell as cheap as others, why not give us the preference? If we do not sell as good goods at as small a price, we will not ask your patronage.

L. B. WALKER,

HARD to beat for the accommodation of the citizens of Raleigh, would say that he has in his employ two as good workmen as can be procured anywhere. He has been at considerable expense in the Baking business, and will do all in his power to give satisfaction. It is with the citizens to say, whether or not a Bakery should be supported. At any rate, he will give the business a fair trial this Winter.
